

Loan Forgiveness Recipients by Program and Region where Employed: Beginning 2011

General Description

The New York State Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC) was established in 1974 to centrally administer student financial aid programs. HESC administers the State's Tuition Assistance Program (TAP) and other state and federal financial aid programs; including eight scholarships and four award programs. Under certain conditions, a student loan borrower may receive awards to repay all or part of their education loans in exchange for performing a qualifying service for a defined period of time.

Data Collection Methodology

Information for this file was extracted from the systems that process applications and employment data for eligible loan forgiveness recipients as described above and collated by award year, program name, and the region where employed.

This dataset will be updated in November of each year, coinciding with the publication of the HESC Annual Report. This dataset will provide region level detail for information presented in Table 7 and Table 8 of the report.
